Briscoe Museum's VOICES OF THE WEST with MICHAEL HORSE

"Role of Native Americans in Popular Media" on Tuesday, April 26

WHAT: Actor, artist, and Board Member of the American Indian Film Institute, Michael Horse, will kick off the Briscoe's 2016 Voices of the West: Distinguished Lecture Series speaking on the evolving roles and representations of Native Americans in TV and film. Horse is best known for the role of Deputy Tommy 'Hawk' Hill in the popular 90's TV series "Twin Peaks," a role he will revisit in the new version of the series currently in production.

Through this ongoing series, the Briscoe Museum invites key influencers — scholars, writers, artists, activists, and policy makers — to illuminate diverse perspectives on the history and future of the American West.

*Free admission for Briscoe Members; $10 for non-members.
Register online at BriscoeMuseum.org or at 210.299.4499.*

About The Briscoe Western Art Museum

The Briscoe Western Art Museum, named in honor of the late Texas Governor, Dolph Briscoe, Jr. and his wife, Janey Slaughter Briscoe, preserves and presents the art, history, and culture of the American West through engaging exhibitions, educational programs, and public events reflective of the region's rich traditions and shared heritage. Located along the San Antonio River Walk, its campus is inclusive of the restored historic 1930s former San Antonio Public Library building which now serves as the Museum space with nine galleries on three levels; the new, three-story Jack Guenther Pavilion used for event rentals and programs; and the outdoor McNutt Sculpture Garden.
