

2019 Rules of Sale

General Information

The Art and the Animal Sale features premier artists from around the world. Visitors will have access to the exhibition during museum hours from September 20, 2019 through January 5, 2020.

All artwork is sold “as is.” The Briscoe Museum is an agent for the owner of the artwork. The museum assumes no risk, liability, or responsibility for the authenticity or the authorship of any art piece in the sale. The museum reserves the right to withdraw any art piece at any time before the sale and shall have no liability whatsoever for such withdrawal. The museum reserves the right to purchase any work exhibited. If a buyer wishes to purchase a particular piece of art at the set fixed price, s/he must fill out the sales agreement and return it to the Collectors Concierge or the museum store.

In the case of sculpture—where multiple editions are available for purchase—sales will be made until the editions are sold out. Sales will be confirmed in the order names received. The first confirmed buyer will receive the work in the exhibition. Additional confirmed buyers will receive their limited edition directly from the artist by shipment.

Payment & Delivery

Once a sale is confirmed, a buyer is required to sign the Sales Agreement and return it to Anne Marie Williams, Collectors Concierge. Payment for all sold artwork is due in its entirety upon signing the sales agreement, unless prior arrangements have been approved by museum management. Checks are preferred and shall be made payable to the Briscoe Western Art Museum. Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover are also accepted and subject to a 3% service charge. When applicable, state and local sales tax will be added to the purchase price. Tax exemptions will be verified, and buyers must present proof of exemption at the time of purchase.

ALL ARTWORK WILL REMAIN ON DISPLAY AT THE BRISCOE THROUGH JANUARY 5, 2019. Some works have been selected to travel throughout the Art and the Animal exhibition and will be on display through October 3, 2019. The museum will contact each buyer within two weeks of the purchase date to outline pick-up and shipping options. In the event that a purchased work is selected for the museum tour, that artwork may not be released to the purchaser until completion of the museum tour, at which time it will be shipped insured to the buyer.
